

ALL-INCLUSIVE RESORTS

8 All-Inclusive Resorts with Life-Changing Spas

If you're visiting an all-inclusive, you can already count on relaxation—no stress about whipping out the wallet or wondering if that nice restaurant is really worth the price. However, while you're bound to revel in all the activities, food and drink, and beach-lounging that most all-inclusives provide, consider unwinding even more with a trip to the spa. These eight stays offer the most incredible treatments, facilities, and practitioners around to provide you with the ultimate relaxation experience.

By Jackie Homan April 26, 2019

3

Lake Austin Spa Resort, Austin, TX

Choose an all-inclusive package with a spa credit at Lake Austin Spa Resort in Texas Hill Country and the only worry you'll have all week will be choosing which of the 100-plus treatments to experience first. Set in a 25,000-square-foot facility alongside hot tubs, saunas, and steam rooms, sessions include everything from muscle massage and organic facials to energy-inspired chakra balancing, East Asian pain relief treatment, floating massage in the Pool Barn, and a Forest Bathing Journey that recreates the soothing scents and sounds of wood-filled air.

