

Home > Destinations > USA > Texas > Austin > Hotels > The Best Hotel Spas in Austin

The Best Hotel Spas in Austin

Lauren Modery | May 23, 2018

Austin has its fair share of spas, which is no surprise since it is located in the lush and tranquil Texas Hill Country. Most spas are located in either Downtown Austin or out in the country, and they can greatly range in price. Below is a list of some of our favorite spas, all with different features and price ranges.

WHY IT MADE THE LIST

This all-inclusive resort located out in Hill Country has just about everything you can think of—spa, three healthy prepared meals a day, 20+ daily activities, guest speakers and so on. In addition to pampering your body with massages and yoga classes, you can feed the mind with meditation and art lessons taught by working artists. Even your furry friend can get pampered here—comfy beds and chef-inspired doggie menus are available. The luxury will cost you though. A stay can average anywhere from $675 to $1,225 per day.